Game Day Round 7 ICU League Berkeley Vs Kiama

The Berkeley Football Club would like to welcome the players, supporters and officials of the Kiama Football Club. I'm sure we will have a wonderful afternoon of top football.

Both Berkeley and Kiama have been great rivals over the years and are both great clubs with a lot of history. Kiama are back in the ICU league after a brief fling in the Premier League, and we would expect them to prove they still have what it takes to be a top flight club. I am also sure that after our close game with Helensburgh the Berkeley team also wants to prove a point. We have had some wonderful tussles over the years and this will prove to be no different.

After the game we extend an invitation for all players, supporters and officials from the Kiama Club to join with us and enjoy a chat and a drink at our players presentation in the well appointed Berkeley Sports Club.

You may purchase Dinner at the Terrace Bistro.

The Program for today is 4 games with Youth grade starting at 1:00pm and First grade at 3:00pm. There is a Division 1 match between Berkeley and Picton Rangers and the Berkeley Sports junior club will kick off the day at 9:30 against Woonona. The U14 team is currently in 2nd position after 8 rounds.

Good Luck to All teams.

GO BERKELEY !!!!

Code of conduct for Supporters

Football Supporters are an emotional lot, and sometimes a bit loud. It is great to see the boys supporting each other. Just remember its OK to be loud and have fun, just make sure you are not offensive.

Abuse of referees, players, officials or other supporters including offensive language and swearing will not be tolerated.

If this happens you will be ejected from the ground. You risk being Banned from future games and prosecution by the Police.

Remember we are all here to have fun

Great footballers Bobby Moore

Born in Barking on 12 April 1941, Moore made his debut for West Ham United against Manchester United on 8 September 1958 at the age of seventeen. He was to play 545 games for the club, leading them to their first-ever FA Cup win, over Preston North End in 1964, and the European Cup Winners' Cup the following year; in a 2-0 win over Munich 1860.

He made the senior England side in 1962. He played in that year's World Cup in Chile, when England lost to Brazil in the quarter-finals. A year later, under Alf Ramsey, he became England's youngest-ever captain. He was admired for his ability to tackle and read the game, when made up for his lack of pace. He was a gentleman on and off the field and a true leader and captained his country for 90 of his 108 matches, equalling Billy Wright's record.

In 1966 led his team out at Wembley to their historic 4-2 World Cup Final win against West Germany. His West Ham team-mate Geoff Hurst scored an historic hat-trick in the 4-2 win with Moore supplying pinpoint passes for two of his goals. The now iconic image of Moore holding the Jules Rimet trophy aloft at Wembley is one that has since been engrained on every football fan's memory. Four years later, he captained the defending champions in Mexico, England eventually going out to West Germany in the quarter-finals..

In the 1970s, after a series of disagreements with manager Ron Greenwood, Moore left West Ham to join Fulham and helped the team reach the 1975 FA Cup Final - ironically losing 2-0 to West Ham. He ended his playing days in the United States, then went into management but with little success.

He died tragically young at the age of 51, in 1993, from bowel cancer.

In 2003 Moore was chosen by football fans nationwide as England's greatest player of the last fifty years. Fellow legend Franz Beckenbauer said of him: " Bobby was my football idol. I looked up to him. I'm so proud to have played against him ".

In May 2007 a 20ft statue, weighing about two tons, was unveiled at the new Wembley Stadium. Prime Minister Tony Blair, who was in attendance, said: "If you want a role model in public life, Bobby Moore is a pretty good one to take. He was a true gentleman."
